103-Consumption and the Diseases of the Thrant
AND LUNOS TREATED BY THE INHALATION OF MEDICATED
VAPORS.—Dr. Wm. Hunter, brother of Dr. Nobert Huater, respectfully announces to all those who are afflicted with diseases of the throat and tungs, that he has retigned to St. Jouis, where he intends painamently to establish himself.

There is probably no class of diseases which are so wide apread in their nature and so torible in their results as the diseases of the throat and tungs. Tr, therefore, becomes a matter of earmist solicitude to the profession to knowle there he any means whereby those diseases can be controiled and ameliorated.

Dr. R. Hunter and myself ham made these diseases our own peculiar study for several years, and we have found that the only means whereby these diseases can be reached in by direct local application, or the presenting of medi canes which are breathed from the lungs in the form of vaport, and are consequently brought in contact with the whole internal surface of the lungs. The success of our treatment has fully custained the theory.

Persons at a distance, schading a tuil description of their case, will receive freatment according to their symptoms.

Contrary to expectations, it is evident that the arrival of Mr. Fillmore in New York, has infused it comes to the final count of votes. a considerable degree of vitality into his party, which has taken the first opportunity to signally vindicate its attachment to first principles, and as the fragment of the original party possessing unimpaired its "distinguishing characteristics." old fashioned style. Mr. Van Riper approach. laws with jndgement and skill. ed the chair, when, says the New York Times' report, "a violent shout of execration was raised," and there were lond cries for the Vice President to take the chair. Mr. Van Riper wished to explain his position, but was greeted with cheers for Fillmore and groans for Fremont .him out," "down with him," "gouge him," and hideous groaning. The Vice President, a kind of reports which occupy considerable space in Know-Nothing named Stokely, acted as Chairman at the call of the russians. We clip the following from the Ileraid's report:

The Chairman thumped vigorously upon the desk, and besought the persons to come to order, and hear Mr Van Riper A Voice-1 ask if Mr. Van Riper did not say

Mr. Vanderpool of the Fifteenth Ward, then jumped upon the reporter's table, elbowing Mr. Duganne off. He offered a resolution of his own to the effect that Mr. Van Riper should be expelled from the room. Mr. Van Riper, he said, had been paid $1,000 down to sell the Club to Fremont, and had another $1,000 promised him. Mr. Van Riper (with indignation)-I brand that man as an atrocious liar. The ruffians could stand no more. Those near the platform leaped upon it, making for Mr. Van Riper with doubled fists and fingers prepared for eye-gonging. The reporters' table was overturned. The Presiden't desk was upset .-The howl, as' of a den of ferocious beasts, scared honest people many blocks off. The gas was put out. Mr. Van Riper had some strong friends near him, who aided his escape. There was a general free fight. The gas being re-lighted, they rushed in every direction for Van Riper. They searched ante-rooms and private closets. They hooted, hissed, and behaved only as indecent dogs could behave. Mr. Van Riper escaped them, and they formed in procession, and with shouts and cathe, marched to the St. Nicholas Hotel, and after considerable cheering, succeeded in bring-HADDONFIELD, N. J. April 20 I was attacked by a severe pain in the side, in the region of the liver. I suffered intensely through the whole winter. During all this time was confined to my house, had a violent cough, raised much bloody matter, and was supposed by myself and others to be in the last stages of Consumption. The February following when apparently life was at a close, I procured a bot-tle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. As soon as I commenced its use, I began to grow better. The soreness of my side grew less, the cough gradually left me, the profuse expectoration and spitting of blood ceased, and my general health became by degress restored. I was soon enabled to resume my trade, that of a carpenter, which I have continued without interruption. I will further remark that this remarkable cure was effected by only three bottles of the Balsam. THOMAS COZZENS.

Every Saturday night, as Porter was sitting balancing his cash, a note would come, requesting "the loan of a five-dollar bill." The money dentical note he borrowed. Since he had disovered this fact he had made private marks on the note; still the same was handed back on Monday morning. One Saturday evening Porter sent a five-dollar gold piece instead of a note, and marked it. Still the very same coin was returned on Monday. Porter got nervous and billous about it; he could not sleep at night for the middle of the night, and ask her what she hought of such a strange occurrence. He was boiling over with enriosity, when a note came from the reverend borrower, one Christmas eve, asking for the loan of ten dollars. A brilliant thought struck our friend. Political Deception Exposed. Some time ago Popc Swigert & Co. issued their oyal mandate to all their willing and unwilling rassals in all the Judicial Districts in Kentucky, calling on them and commanding them to hold conventions to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge and Prosecuting Attorney for their respective Districts. In all those Districts in which the devotees of "Sam" were the majority, the command was at once obeyed with alacrity and delight; but unfortunately for them, in some Districts, after all the jerrymandering of last winter, they were still in the minority. There they were in a fix, and something must be done to prop up and save a sinking cause. They were not long in determining what expedient they would fall upon, which was to hold no convention in those Districts in which they were in the minority, but to get out certain Know Nothings, rivately, for all the offices, and let them go out and proclaim that they are no party candidates; and cry aloud against making a party race for Judicial offices, and declare those who did so gnilty of an unpardonable political sin.

This is especially true of the Eighth District, as we very well know; and some men are candidates in that District, who, if we are to believe what they preach, have long since passed their day of grace, and will now find no room for repentance, though they seek it carefully with tears.

We will give the reader a short history of the conduct of certain Know Nothings who are now candidates, and he can see how they have acted in days gone by, when they supposed that all the world would fall down before the mighty power of "Sam."

In the little town of Carrollton, Ky., which does not contain one thousand inhabitants, there must of course be a "council;" and there is one, and the candidate for Judge opposed to Elijah Nutall is a member of it, and so are the candidates for the county offices. In the spring of 1855, the "council" nominated candidates for all the little offices-such as Police Judge, town Marshal, Justices, and town Trustees; and the 'no party" men of this day made the election of those petty officers a party affair, and voted for them almost, if not to a man; and no man can show by the record of their votes, any instance which they have voted for a man who was not of their party since they took the first oath in that secret cabilistic clan, and they cannot vote for a man who is not of their order, without 'Laying perjury to their souls.'' These are the nen who now cry out "No party race.".

"Beware of the religion which the white man One way he act, another way he preach.' At the before mentioned spring election in Car-ollton, in 1855, Judye Pryor, who is now upon the stump, was there, and voted the Know Nothing ticket for the little offices before mentioned. Then he made the election of those insignificant officers a party matter; now he would not be a party candidate-is no party man, &c.

We will tell you, reader, how this change came over the spirit of his dreams, and what has produced it. In Carrollton and, as they supposed, in the county, the K. N.'s had a large majority. Then he was a party man. Now he is not sure have advanced since our lest issue, and we now quote $150a$160, with a closing sale of 20 tons at $160.

Then he was a party man. Now he is not sure there is a majority in the county, and knows that $160.

Then he was a party man. Now he is not sure there is a majority in the county, and knows that $160.

Then he was a party man. Now he is not sure there is a majority in the county, and knows there is not in the district, and he wants to be black, so that your picture appears to be 'hooking through a smoked glass darkly," (this is no fiction, please exampled to the furmer, 'That alters the case.'' I will give the reader a good anecdote, or story, of our candidate for the judgeship, and then close There is at Carrollton a certain Democrat, ' man of good report," who, like all other men of correct thoughts, has a strong aversion to know Nothingism, whose name is John Bradman. This same John Bradman went to the courthouse on the day of the before-mentioned spring election of 1855, to cast his vote on the righ side for justices, police judge, marshal of the nown and trustees, and on his way fell in with Judge Pryor, who bantered Bradman to vote as he did. At that time Know Nothingism was all a profound secret. Neither the members of the order nor candidates were known to outsiders. Bradman supposed it almost impossible that the Judge could be a member of that fraternity, and upon receiving the before-mentioned proposition from him, said, "Weil, Judge, I believe I will do so, for I do not want to vote for Know Nothings, and I do not believe you are one; so they went together, and the Judge voted for his party (being then a party man), and Bradman followed suit, and voted the same ticket, the Know Nothings all around laughing in their sleeves to think how completely the stern and inflexible Democrat had been deceived and induced to vote for their candidates.

On the foregoing we forbear comment. What we have said is well known here, and Bradman himself still lives, and will not withhold the truth from any inquirer. truth from any inquirer.

Can it be possible that any man of common rationality will be deceived by this cry of "No party race for judicial offices?" Are not justices of the page judicial officers? and was not our no-party candidate on the other side of the question in the spring of 1855?

Pryor was last elected, hundreds of Democrats were among his ardent supporters; but the Know Nothings compelled them either to vote for candidates forced upon tham by control of the supporters and the supporters of the supporter for candidates forced upon them by conventions in which they were not represented, and by a yarty whose meetings the could not attend, or to get out a candidate of their own; and still they are condemped for making a party race for judi-cial offices. One thing we know, the Democsats did not have a ticket for the little offices here in 1855, nor untill driven to it by the Know Noth-A LOOKER-ON URBAN'S SAPES.

C. URBAN, REQ.: DearSir—Wetake pleasuroin expressing our entiresatisfaction in the utility of your salamander Safes, of which we had two in use at our liquor and Rectifying establishment, on Sycamore street, at the late severe confagration. Surrounded by the most combustible material, and remaining for nearly two days in the burning ruline, our surprise was beyond description in finding, after opening said Safes everything in good order. In tendering to you our sincerer at leastion, we do not he situate to recommend your Safes to those in want of such an article, as we know from experience that they truly are what they represent to he, "fire proof."

We remain verytrinly yours, Wilshield, Beistell C. Cincinnati, Oct., 1853.

I would call the attention of my friends and the publicin general to the above letter, handed to me by Meesrs. W. B. & Ca., axtoneive Il quor merchants.—It is well known by the Cincinnati public that aeveral of my Safes, of different slees, have stood, of late, very severe tests. Among others, I would refer to be fire at Mr. Scutll's druggist; that of Messrs, David & control of the control of the safes at leame ont victorious, althougas urrounded by the moetoombustable material.

Having acquired all the late Improvements, I dare say that my Safes are luferior to none made this side the mountains. As to the outer appearance, I combine neatness with durability. Thankful for past favors, coontinuzion of patronage leakindly colicited, m?

FREIGHTS.—By a recent arrangement with the M. & L. R. L. Co., the Jeffersonville Company now run their own Loconotives, Cars and Conductors through to Indianapolis, over the M. & L. R. K. trom Edinburg, which greatly facilities the transportation of fleights.

The attention of merchants shipping heights North and East is called to this route, and the advantages it offers. For through the kets and information in regard to freights, apply at the office, 550 Main street, Louisville, Ky., E. O. NitRTON, Agent, or at the Departin Jeffersonville.
